

Play Ball Jamie Bogard Memorial Sports Scholarship

Description:

This scholarship is in memory of Jamie Bogard. He is the son of Lyle and Marie Bogard. Jamie is the husband of Jennifer Bogard. The father of Eli and Emmy Bogard.

Jamie played basketball and baseball for SCHS from 1986-1990 as well as at NSE. Jamie went to college playing ball for Lambeth until he decided to return home and complete his education at APSU. Over the years starting 2009-2021, Jamie was a dedicated coach for basketball and baseball with SC Little League, Upward Basketball, travel baseball and assistant coach for SCMS and SCHS. Jamie was not only loved by his family but by his community.

This scholarship has been established in order to allow a student involved with sports in any way. You are required to write a short essay. The topic of the essay must be a reflection of how sports has impacted your life. It can be a reflection of any sport, at any time in your life. It may be about the sport, the coach, or your parents. With this scholarship we hope to carry on the memory of Jamie. He touched the life of so many with his dedication to God, family, work and sports.

The deadline is March 7th. Please submit to Wanda Taylor or Megan Parks. The essays will be read by the family of Jamie. Please do not put your name on the essay as it will be anonymous. When you turn it in, you will be given a number that will be written on your essay. They will have the copy of the name to go with the number.

This is a one-time scholarship. It will vary in amount each year from $500-$1000. This year the 2022 scholarship will be $1,000. Good luck and we look forward to reading your essay!
